Objective(100 words)	The objectives of a poster presentation and project demonstration is Knowledge Dissemination is One of the primary objectives is to share information and knowledge about a particular project, research, or topic with a wider audience.
Benefit in-terms of learning/skill/knowledge obtained	In Poster presentations the students were able to offer a concise, visually appealing, and interactive platform for sharing research findings and networking, enabling effective communication and in-depth discussions. Project demonstrations, on the other hand, provide a hands-on, engaging experience that showcases practical applications, captures immediate feedback, and highlights functionality, making them particularly valuable for tangible or technological projects. Both methods serve as excellent tools for knowledge dissemination and engagement in various professional and academic settings.
